Dave Yoder, Leon Heyerly and Craig Gingerich have offered to team teach an Adult discussion class. We have started a list of suggestions for topics, but the class will select which topics to explore. Come for our first class this Sunday, Oct. 4 at 9:30 AM in the west skylight room.

Everyone is welcome to stay for today's Potluck Fundraiser for El Torno Senior Center in Bolivia. If you are not able to stay, you may still donate. Make your check payable to Zion Mennonite Church and designate El Torno in the memo line.

You're invited to join a Women's Bible Study meeting this Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. at the church. We will meet every other week from hereon. We will be reading and discussing the book Authentic Relationships by Wayne and Clay Jacobsen.

Thank you so much for the beautiful roses that Jeff brought me from the church in commemoration of my brother Frank's passing. They have meant a lot to me.
Sue Roth

Thank you Zion family so much for your prayers, cards, your words of encouragement, and the gift certificate to Al's. Pop (as we called him) loved flowers and gardening, so to be able to purchase something for our yard in his memory will be perfect. Your love has comforted us more than we can say.

The Mast Family

Thank you Zion Mennonite Church for your supporting Drift Creek through your BBQ dinner fundraiser and 2009 campships!

Calling all Bakers!!

MCC FALL FESTIVAL BAKED GOODS NEEDED

Every year attendance at the Fall Festival increases and baked goods sell out very fast. Your help is greatly appreciated in making the following: angel food cakes, peppernuts, fruit pies, dinner rolls, brownies, quick and yeast breads (white or whole wheat), zwieback, cinnamon rolls, carrot cake and cookies. No cream pies. No cakes except angel food and carrot. Cookies should be packaged one or two dozen per package. All goods should be labeled. Pie tins will be available in the church foyer on Sunday, Oct. 4. You may leave your items in the church kitchen by 4pm on Fri, Oct. 9 or you may deliver them to the baked goods booth on Sat. morning. If questions, see Nancy Beachy.

Sausage Booth: Sign up today to work in the Sausage Booth. The sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board. Thank you! Karen Kropf

We are pleased to have a special speaker on Sunday, October 11, to speak to MYF and adult Sunday School classes about stewardship and related challenges in the faith community. Paul Steury is the education coordinator at Merry Lea Environmental Learning Center of Goshen College. He will speak to us about stewardship in the faith community in a presentation titled "How Can You Not Care For God's Green Earth?" Pacific Covenant and Salem Mennonite Churches have been invited to join us for this special event. Please plan to be in the sanctuary at 9:30 to respect the time of our guests and speaker.

There will be a soup lunch following the service. Plan to stay and fellowship with our guests. The menu will be Turkey Noodle Soup, rolls, baby carrots, and pumpkin bars.

91 School has a program called All Bulldogs Can Read. They are looking for adult volunteers to come in and read with students, one-on-one, for 1 to 1 1/2 hours per week. If you are interested in helping, contact Jaque Harley at 91 School.

Thank you to the many people who have been a part of the meals for households in need this last year; you have been greatly appreciated. This group has an official name now, appropriately, Helping Hands. Please help us update our email list by dropping us a line if you are willing to continue or begin serving in this way.
